PEAR MARKETS CONTACT TOLD

Cool Man, In Field For Tri-State League, Finds
Welcome In Memphis

We are indebted to L. W. Veerkamp for permission to publish a portion of a letter received by him from Carrol Miller, who is doing special field work in behalf of pear marketing, as an employee of the Oregon-Washington-California Pear League, which has its headquarters at Medford, Oregon, and of which Mr. Veerkamp is a director.

Mr. Miller is well known to El Dorado County growers, being a rancher at Cool, this county. A year or so ago he was doing work similar to that in which he is now engaged, at Buffalo, New York, for the California Fruit Exchange, and more recently he was employed with the Placerville Fruit Growers' Association. He writes from Memphis, Tenn., under date of December 1, mentioning that prior to arriving in Memphis, he had "worked" in El Paso, San Antonio, Galveston, Houston, Austin, Fort Worth, Dallas, Little Rock and Hot Springs. The letter continues:

"In all of those markets I found a few winter pears and most of the trade very anxious to learn everything we could give them about storing and conditioning.

"Just to give you an idea about how I am trying to handle it, let me give you an outline of my time here in Memphis. Of course this is a much larger market than the others I have worked in and I have put in more time here than in any of the others.

"I drove in here Sunday after-

WET PAVEMENT WARNING to motorists during the winter season is contained in the above picture of a car which figured in a collision at "Nigger Bend," on U. S. Route 50 just west of Five-Mile Terrace, last Friday afternoon. Mrs. E. M. Pierce, enroute from Grand Junction, Colorado, to join her husband at Concord, was injured severely enough to require hospital treatment. In the car with her were her mother-in-law, her son, daughter and Ray Johnston, driver. Westbound, the car skidded on the turn and went into the side of an eastbound lumber truck, with damage to the car as is apparent in the photo.—Democrat Photo.

ANTI-ITALIAN FEELING CALLS OUT MORE FRENCH TROOPS

Reinforcements In Tunisia Described As Precautionary In View Of Plans For Huge
Arab Demonstration; Tension Increases

TUNIS. (UP)—France rushed troops and mobile guard reinforcements here from Algeria today as disorderly demonstrations increased tension between the French and Italian populations in Tunisia.

The reinforcements were described as a precautionary measure to prevent the demonstrators—encouraged by plans for a great Arab demonstration against Italy—from getting out of hand. Two hundred French soldiers and 200 native cavalrymen guarded the Italian consulate. Troops were at all strategic points.

French war veterans and Corsicans clashed with police as they were turned away from Italian business houses after mounted police had curbed a student demonstration against Italy.

The French resident general expressed regret to the Italian consul general that demonstrators had thrown blue and red ink—the French colors—on the Italian consulate.

Today's demonstration was the fourth in five days.

The first outbreak occurred on Sunday, when windows of Italian offices were smashed. The second was on Tuesday, when French and Italian students had fist fights and stoned one another. On Wednesday, railroad and highway workers threw ink on the walls of the Italian consulate.

Italian consul general Michele Simbani announced that he would protest to French authorities against anti-Italian demonstrations and would give notice that unless the demonstrations cease Italians living in Tunis would put themselves in a "state of legitimate defense."

MISS PHEBE PALLETT IS CALLED BY DEATH AT WISCONSIN HOME

We are indebted to Mrs. Sarah J. Duden, of Sacramento, for the report of the death at Cuba City, Wisconsin, on October 2, last, of Miss Phebe Pallett, a former resident of El Dorado, who was associated with her brother, Harry Pallett, in the management of the Oriental Hotel, at El Dorado. Miss Pallett had passed her 95th birthday.

We wish to thank Mrs. Duden for her favor in reporting an item which will be of interest to our El Dorado readers, and for the following brief review of Miss Pallett's life:

"Miss Pallett was born in West Point, Iowa, October 15, 1842. At the age of five she moved with her parents to a farm near Fairplay, Wisconsin, where she received her education and grew to young womanhood. At 19 her mother passed away and the next twenty years of her life were spent in making a home for her aged father. After his death she came to El Dorado, California, where she engaged in the hotel business with her brother until his death in 1906, when she returned to Nebraska and later to Cuba City, Wisconsin, to make her home with relatives. As she never married, the relatives left to mourn her passing are all nieces and nephews, some of whom are of the fifth generation.

"The time will be recalled by a large number of your old time subscribers when Miss Pallett and her brother Harry Pallett operated the Oriental Hotel, now known as the Hill Hotel, in El Dorado. They were highly respected and well known citizens."

Thank you again, Mrs. Duden.

STATE "PARTY" FOR OLSON

Barbecue And Carnival At Fair Grounds Included In Inaugural Preparations

By JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent
SACRAMENTO, (UP)—Something new and different for the inauguration of a governor will be written into California history by Governor-elect Culbert L. Olson—a barbecue and carnival at the state fair grounds for all residents of the state.

Californians are no longer surprised at such unusual things as the $30-Every-Thursdays pension, ski tournaments and rodeos in the Los Angeles Coliseum, gigantic bridges and a world's fair island in San Francisco Bay, religious and political fanatics, and "premiere" openings for open air markets. Even so, the Olson barbecue was definitely news because it was the first deviation from the traditional speeches and silk hat events that usually constitute inaugurations.

It should be understood that Olson will be inaugurated before the legislature on Jan. 2, as per custom, and that the formal inaugural ball will be held Friday, Jan. 6. But Olson wanted to do something for the "common people" and got together with the California State Employees Association in sponsoring the barbecue as a good way to entertain a large crowd.

It is planned that crowded special trains and air travel will help swell the attendance to 125,000. A free barbecue dinner will be served, for which 400 beavers have already been donated. Two "name" dance bands will play for the free dancing all day in Merriam Hall, the new auditorium at the fair named after the retiring governor, Frank F. Merriam.

Hollywood celebrities will arrive in force to donate their talents for the various shows in front of the grandstand.

Troop 57 Has Honor Court

Eighteen Merit Badges,
Other Awards, Presented
At Meeting On Tuesday

Eighteen merit badges were presented to members of Boy Scout Troop 57 at a Court of Honor meeting Tuesday night at the Junior Community Hall.

In addition to the badges, numerous other awards were made to members of the troop, according to their demonstration of proficiency in Boy Scout training.

Four received tenderfoot pins. They are, Dick Thomas, Claybourne McClintic, Walter Donder and Leon Gaskali.

Art Davies was advanced to the rating of Second Class and Junior Wurdth and Art Griggs became Scouts of the First Class. Star Scout ratings were issued to Gerald Bonillo, Martin Luther, Karl Herrman and William Rohrer.

The eighteen merit badges were awarded as follows: Gerald Bonillo, Safety and Personal Health, Swimming, Woodwork and Reading; Karl Herrman, Safety, Reading and Woodwork; Lyle Smith, Lifesaving and Zoology; Junior Wurdth, Reading and Handicraft.

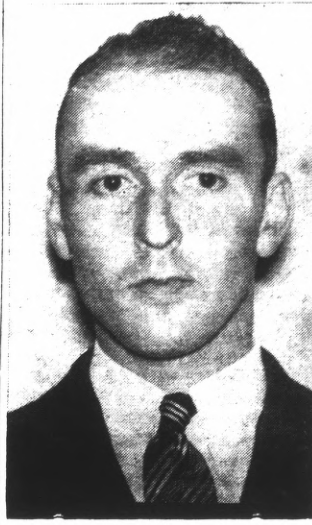

Twenty-Thirtians To Dance Saturday

Members of the Placerville Twenty-Thirty Club report preparations have been completed for their dance on Saturday evening, Dec. 10, at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Paul Rossiter heads the committee in charge and announces that Red's Rhythm Rascals will provide the music for the evening. The dance is one of a series of public functions to be conducted during the winter season under the club's sponsorship.

A suit for divorce is on file at the courthouse in behalf of Don Odum against Ruth Odum, charging extreme cruelty. Papers state the couple wed at Dallas, Tex., March last. There are no children and no community is mentioned in the 9, 1920, and separated June 23, complaint.

Rudy Kunigk and mother, Mrs. Hannah Kane, were among the Thursday callers in the county seat from Coloma.

XMAS WINDOW CONTEST

Public Will Select Best
Decorated Display Made
By Placerville Merchant

At a meeting of the Placerville Merchants' Committee in charge of Christmas promotion it was decided that since so many merchants have put forth much effort in decorating their Christmas windows this year, recognition should be shown and honors established for the "Best Decorated Display Window in Placerville."

The judging of this is to be left to the people of the entire county or to any visitor to Placerville. Just cast your ballot with the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at Raffles Hotel who will provide one for you, for what merchant you think has the best decorated display window in Placerville.

There will be no specific time for viewing the windows or for voting. You may do this any time between now and Christmas Eve, December 24th.

Anyone may vote, regardless of age, or where they live. Write the name of the merchant on the ballot. Comment if you wish.

After Christmas the ballots will be canvassed by the committee and the merchant receiving the highest number of votes will be declared the winner, and the name published.

EMPLOYMENT SERVICE TO MOVE TO GROUND FLOOR MAIN STREET STORE

California State Employment Service is preparing to move from the Sumner Building to the Diamond Match Building on Main street, next door to the Diamond Match office.

According to officials in the Diamond Match office, the store building is being renovated and fixed up for offices suitable to the requirements of the Employment Service.

This week a new cement floor is being laid, which is to be covered with mastupave and the building redecorated and made modern throughout.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Celio are at San Francisco where Mr. Celio is under hospital treatment for a current illness. Friends report that Mr. Celio is getting along satisfactorily following a recent operation and may be able to return home by Christmas.

15 More days to BUY and USE

They stimulate the building and the use of tuberculosis sanatoria.

Purchases of Christmas Seals in the county to date are in excess of $350, it was announced Thursday noon by Guy E. Wentworth, treasurer of the El Dorado County Tuberculosis Association. Mr. Wentworth said that numerous letters have been received since Monday, where the above total was struck off, but that owing to illness among the workers, a new total has not yet been obtained.

Rose Bowl Is Again Barred To Thousands

LOS ANGELES, (UP)—The Rose Bowl game between Southern California and Duke was a sell out today and 15,000 "forgotten fans" considered themselves lucky to have obtained end-zone seats at $3.30 and $4.40 a throw.

Tickets for the remaining 75,000 seats were not made available to the public. The USC alumni got 55,000, rector 3500, Tournament of Roses patrons 13,000, officials 3500, parade participants 1500, Duke University 5000; and press, radio and Pacific Coast Conference members 6000.

It was the second year that John Q. Fan had been forgotten by the Rose Bowl biggies. The 15,000 end-zone seats were placed on sale yesterday and within five hours all had been sold and the ticket windows closed.

Reorganization Attempt Seen

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Indications that the administration is preparing a new government reorganization bill were seen today when President Roosevelt called Louis Brownlow, Luther Gulick, and Charles E. Merriam, his government reorganization advisors to the white house for a conference.

The three advisors helped draft the reorganization bill killed in the last congress.

White House attaches believed the present discussions were of an exploratory nature, presumably a forerunner to actual drafting of a specific bill and agreement on provisions.

MARGUERITE PARLOR HAS INITIATION AND ELECTION

The regular meeting of Marguerite Parlor No. 12, N. D. G. W., on Wednesday evening, was one of special interest, opening with a pot-luck supper followed by the formal meeting at which eight candidates for membership were initiated and officers for the ensuing term were elected.

Entertainment for the meeting was an "amateur radio hour" presented by members of the organization.

The newly chosen officers are: Mary Lyons, president; Bernice Ferris, first vice-president; Ethel Wickes, second vice-president; Gertrude Steffens, third vice-president; Annie Vennewitz, marshal; Geneva Rossi, outside sentinel; Margaret Wilson, recording secretary; Georgia Ball, organist; Louise Shepard, financial secretary; Esther Dugan, treasurer; and Margaret Carpenter, Mary Palmer and Harriett Amstalden, trustees.

Those who were initiated in membership in the parlor are Florence Griggs, Ruth Thomas, Ethel Davenport, Ruth Gregor, Daisy Palmer, Anna Fitzgerald, Isabel Long and Bessie Jespersen.

Members of the parlor report that in addition to their direct support to the Central Committee on Homeless Children, the parlor has a record of contributing an additional amount, aggregating $408.50, which was used to pay for the care of eleven different babies from the time of their birth until they were about six weeks of age, at which time they were placed in foster homes for adoption.

East-West Shrine Game Set For January 2

The annual New Year's day football classic at San Francisco, in which the pick of eastern college eleven plays against a like team from western colleges, will be played at Kezar Stadium on Monday, January 2.

The contest is sponsored each year for the benefit of the Shriners' hospital for crippled children and proceeds of the day are devoted to that cause.

In addition to seeing a glittering assortment of all-star college players perform, spectators at the game also find a thrill in the patriotic pageant presented in connection with the contest.

El Dorado County residents who desire tickets to the game may arrange to obtain them by making known their desires to Justice of the Peace T. F. Lewis, in Placerville.

The early-morning fire alarm on Thursday was occasioned by a defective mechanical refrigerator at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fox.

SON PRAYS AS MOTHER DIES

Twelve-Year-Old Kneels
At Altar Of Prison Chapel;
Mrs. Hahn Pays Penalty

By RALPH C. TIETSBORTH
COLUMBUS, O., (UP)—Soon after Mrs. Anna Hahn, poisoner of four old men, died in the electric chair, her attorney Joseph Hoodin, was asked: "Did she protest her innocence to the last?"

Hoodin replied: "I won't comment on that." Certainly Mrs. Hahn was not protesting her innocence when the warden and three matrons brought her into the death chamber of the Ohio State penitentiary at 8 o'clock last night. Illogically, irrationally, she was pleading for her life with persons who could not grant it, crying out for mercy to persons who had no authority to be merciful.

Mrs. Hahn's attorneys, who fought for over a year to save her from execution, planned to do something for her 12 year old son, Oscar, just what they didn't know.

Oscar saw his mother for the last time late yesterday afternoon. The matrons were waiting to dress her for the chair and they cut off the interview after 20 minutes. Mrs. Hahn was nearly prostrate and young Oscar was ashen-faced, red eyed when he came out, carrying his mother's fur coat. She told him she wouldn't need it any more and he could have it.

Attorney H. C. Bolsinger took him to a hotel and stayed with him until (Turn to page 4)

5-Story Dive Kills Woman

Alameda County Housewife
Throws Self From Seventh
Floor Of Sacramento Block

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—Despondent over ill health, Mrs. Frances Schiller, 33, leaped from the seventh story of a downtown business block last night, suffering injuries which caused her death, police reported today.

Caretakers of the building told officers the woman plunged to the roof of an adjoining structure five stories below after eluding them in a chase through the hallways. Fire Department crews were summoned to remove her battered body from atop the building. She died two hours later at Sacramento Hospital.

Identification of the body was made by Miss Melaine Gretenr, proprietor of a home for convalescents where Mrs. Schiller had been a patient since Sept. 18. Miss Gretenr told police the woman had been despondent and often commented on taking her own life.

Mrs. Schiller leaves her husband, Louis Schiller, dairyman of Mission San Jose, and two children, Louis Jr., 5, and Frances, 7. Schiller was notified by authorities and came here to claim the body.

CALIFORNIA THIRD IN ANNUAL DEATHS DUE TO TUBERCULOSIS

Only two states in the union have a higher number of annual deaths from tuberculosis than California, according to the annual report of the U. S. Public Health Service.

New York ranks first in the number of deaths from tuberculosis, followed by California. The report shows that the death rate from tuberculosis in California has been reduced by two-thirds.

Further reductions of this death rate may be achieved within the next few years providing adequate funds to finance the programs of the sixty-three local city and county tuberculosis associations are raised during the current Seal Sale. The weapons with which to fight the disease are known—we must now make possible the use of these weapons in every community within our state.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Shippy and L. D. Christensen were visiting at the Bonetti home near Shingle one day last week.

Today's Fashion

Cheer on a cold day.

By VERA WINSTON

THERE'S nothing like a brightly-colored tweed coat or suit to bring cheer and glowing beauty into a cold day. Here we come with a grand coat that is made of soft tweed in green and burgundy-red, with plain red tweed used at collar, cuffs and down the sides of the bodice. It has covered belt and buttons. Side pieces of burgundy red tweed are continued down the back of the waist section as in the front. The coat is lined with the red and altogether is calculated to do a good too on a bad day.

Regular meeting of the Rescue Farm Center, with Fred Wessels as chairman, will be held on Friday night at the Rescue hall.

Mine Burglar In Guilty Plea

James Perry Morris, of Kelsey, who Wednesday pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary in the second degree, made application for probation and will learn his fate Saturday morning at ten o'clock in superior court.

Morris was arrested several weeks ago by Sheriff Smith as he was making an exit from the Dayton shaft of the Black Oak mine at Garden Valley at an unseemly hour in the morning.

Morris, according to a statement given authorities, said he entered the mine for the purpose of stealing a cache of about $15,000 in ore.

Also arrested in connection with the case is Leslie Groves, against whom no charge has yet been filed. Officials stated that Groves is on probation following conviction in a case of sluice box robbery and that it is probable he will be called up for a hearing as to whether his connection with the present case constitutes a violation of the terms of his probation in the earlier case.

PEAR MARKETS

noon and after getting located in a hotel I walked up and down several of the main streets getting an idea from the looks of the fruit on the stands and in the store windows about how they were handling it here. I found that pears from Medford predominated.

"As you know, they are a bright, clean-skinned pear much like a Bartlett. Up until three years ago nothing else was ever sold here. This year two cars of Bosc were sold before I got here and two more have been ordered, both from Placerville. This is a strong Placerville market. In fact they told me that no other Bartletts were sold here but Placerville Maids.

"Monday morning I called on one of the brokers in town who handle pears from the Pacific Coast. I explained to them what I was here for, that is, to help them, the jobbers and the retail trade in the proper handling of winter pears. They sure met me with open arms for the town was full of Bosc's and they weren't moving into consumption.

"The weather is quite cold, around 45 degrees most of the time, and the fruit was not ripening and not coloring up, so they just wouldn't sell. They all had been sent circulars about how to ripen, but everyone here has trouble with over-ripe Bartletts when the temperature is around a hundred here in the summer. For that reason, no one would take a chance on ripening the Bosc's, thinking they would get ripe eventually.

"As you know, Bosc at 45 degrees won't get ripe and won't keep. They just get black at the core and rot on the outside without softening up. That is exactly what was beginning to happen to some of the pears that were displayed in out-door stores, as many of them are. Some of the stores that were closed and heated had pears that were beginning to show color and were getting fair to eat.

"Mr. Duckworth of the California Fruit Exchange, who sold the pears here, was kind of on the spot so he was especially glad to see me. He took me around to the principal jobbers, all of whom had Bosc's on hand, and I told my story to them. I was able to convince them that their retailers would take less loss if they, the jobbers, would take the Bosc's out of cold storage ahead of the time they expected to sell them, and place them in a banana room to warm up.

"Two of the four had space they could use for pears and the fruit is in there now. I am watching it every day and will get it out for them to offer their retailers tomorrow. One other did not have room in his banana room, so is building a special room. That will be ready today. One of the jobbers thinks we are a bit crazy but said he would try a few later.

"Wednesday morning I was invited to talk to a meeting of the sales force of the Carter Company, the largest fruit jobbing house in town. They are the firm who sold the Bosc's, a box or two in a place, to retailers all over town and for a hundred miles around. They have 22 salesmen. They were beginning to get plenty of kick-backs on the green Bosc's.

"I had a good break at that meeting for they happened to have a box that had been left in the basement where they had a charcoal heater going and it was in prime condition. I bought the box and the boys very nearly cleaned it up and what they didn't eat the offspring of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonetti near Shingle. Her husband contemplates coming to California to make his home in the near future, after he hears from Mrs. Burns as to the climate and living conditions.

"Spent some time with the produce buyer of the Groeger chain here. They operate nearly 200 stores in and around Memphis. He is going to ripen everything he sends out from now on.

"Tomorrow morning I am invited to talk to the sales force of the Barbano Company at their regular weekly meeting. I am going to have a ripe box for them to eat so they will know what they are talking about when they talk pears.

"This is the first market I have been in that I have worked with Placerville fruit. Have worked on Medford and Yakima pears mostly. I find that certain markets have favorite brands or districts and I.

TELETYPE NEWSPAPER BY RADIO PUBLISHED IN ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—The world's first regular broadcast on ultra high frequency of specially prepared facsimile newspapers was announced yesterday by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, which said the broadcast will be continued daily and Sunday at 2 p. m.

The first radio edition consisted of nine pages, eight and one half inches long and four columns wide, using seven point type. Leading news articles, sports, pictures, a cartoon and radio and financial news were carried. Fifteen minutes are required to transmit one page. The paper is printed on only one side.

The receiving sets contain continuously feeding rolls of paper and carbon paper which pass over a revolving metal cylinder from which a small stylus projects. Pressure which varies with the intensity of the radio waves is exerted on a metal bar parallel to the axis of the cylinder, beneath which the paper and carbon is fed. The black and white of the original copy scanned by an "electric eye" in the sending set is duplicated on the paper passing over the cylinder of the receiving set.

We regret to report that J. E. Jewell, who has not been well for several weeks, suffered a slight heart affliction at his home on Wednesday evening. He is reported as resting comfortably.

of course, do not make any attempt to change that but work with whatever I find. To sum up the job as I have tried to do it, sell the broker on proper handling so he can sell more to the jobbers and then teach the jobber how to store and ripen to bring out the color and juice and then help his sales force sell the retailer.

"And finally, help the retailer by information on the proper displaying and the distribution of recipe books. The league has some fine advertising material in the form of handling manuals and recipe booklets. I have distributed through the jobbers and personally 1,200 detail manuals and 7,000 recipe folders.

"After the meeting I am to talk to tomorrow. I am going to leave for Birmingham, and then on to New Orleans. From there I expect to go to Florida and then up to Georgia and the Carolinas and back through Memphis and toward home."

NATIONAL GUARD NEWS

AUBURN — Entertainment night at the Armory. The men got a great kick out of the games and the contestants in them. To begin the evening a chosen bunch of men had an equipment race. In case any of you do not know just what that is, it is something on the order of a burlesque strip-tease without the teasing and not quite the stripping but plenty of burlesque. The newest man in outfit, Cecil Brown, showed the older men just how they should undress and dress in record time under handicaps. The second thing on the program was a drill down between a picked team of the non-commissioned officers and the privates. The privates did all right for themselves but the men with the most training prevailed in the end and the non-commissioned team won with Sergeant H. Liebguth being the last man out. From the results obtained from the third contest, a message race, it is no wonder that wars are either won or lost oftentimes from the misinterpretation of a verbal message. We had three different teams of four men each and the lead-off man of each team was given the same verbal message and in turn was to repeat it word for word to the next man in line in his team, and so on down to the last man. The last man in each team came over and wrote what they received and you should have seen the results. If I ever get my messages in action I hope and

A colorful combination for a vegetable plate is baked potato, green broccoli, fried or broiled tomatoes, well buttered and a cold celery stalk stuffed with mince or sea-same dressing.

Never wash your eggs, even when they are soiled, until just before cooking. Washing makes the shells porous and they will spoil more quickly.

'Lover's Lane' Murder
Is Confessed

PERKELEY, (AP)—Rodney Greig, 21, confessed today that he stabbed blonde Leona Vlught, 19, to death with a hunting knife on a lonely "lover's lane."

He said he stabbed her "for no reason at all." Then he smoked six cigarettes and watched her die.

Mrs. Grace Allison, who had been here for several weeks visiting, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schwartz, returned Wednesday to her home at Berkeley, being accompanied as far as Sacramento by Mrs. Schwartz and Mr. Edwin Smith.

NEW COMEDY TEAM MAKES DEBUT IN CURRENT EMPIRE FILM

A new light comedy team makes its debut in "The First Hundred Years," opening tonight at the Empire Theatre, in the persons of Robert Montgomery and Virginia Bruce.

Montgomery, who achieved his screen reputation in this type of domestic comedy-drama, comes to the new picture following his work in the highly successful "Live, Love and Learn." Miss Bruce is teamed with him for the first time and receives one of her best opportunities as the wife who refuses to give up a remunerative career to make a home for her husband.

As Miss Bruce's partner in a New York theatrical agency, Warren Williams returns to the debonair role he struck in such films as "The Dark Horse" and the Perry Mason stories. Also featured in a hand-picked supporting cast are Binnie Barnes, in the role of a predatory actress with designs on Montgomery; Alan Dinchart, as the lawyer retained by William for Miss Bruce; Harry Davenport, Nydia Westman, E. Clive Torben Meyer, Bodil Rossing and Irving Bacon.

Son Prays As Mother Dies

At 6:30 p. m. he took him to the hotel dining room and Oscar was eating heartily until he heard newsboys shouting in the street outside. One, with a particularly strident voice, was screaming: "Anna must burn." The papers were announcing that Federal Court Judge Mel C. Underwood had rejected her plea for a writ of habeas corpus, her last possibility of escape.

The child's face went white and his lower lip trembled. He suggested that maybe he could see his mother again. Bolsinger drove him out to the prison and on the way persuaded him that it might be best if he didn't see her.

When they were in the prison yard, Oscar decided he was right and said he understood. Father Sullivan saw the child there and took him into the prison chapel where they prayed for his mother's soul.
